Words of Welcome

Call to Worship

Come all who are weighed down with life's burdens

We come seeking rest and peace at this time

Come all who are looking for answers where there are none, for hope when it seems to have vanished.

We come trusting that God is in this place, hearing our need and ready to respond

Let us worship God.

Hymn: Morning Has Broken

Opening Prayer

Spirit God who speaks our prayers for us with sighs too deep for words, hold us with your love and comfort us with your presence that we might be renewed and encouraged to do our part in the healing of your world. Amen

Children's Time

Hymn: Abide with Me

Scripture Readings

Hebrew 6: 1-12

John 10: 1-19

Message: “Who is the Center of Your Life?”

Hymn: Breathe on Me Breath of God

Offering

Offertory Hymn:

*We give thee but thine own
What e'er the gift may be
All that we have is thine above,
A Trust O God from thee.*

Announcements & Maintenance Committee Report

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Hymn: The Day Thou Gavest Lord is Ended

Benediction and Commissioning

God's love extends beyond what we can fathom,
God's compassion knows no bounds,
In the light of these understandings we go out into a hurting world
looking to bring peace and justice in all that we do.
Amen

Postlude

Greeters at the door today were Gordon Gilmore and Ron Yull.

The Offering was collected by Emma and Sarah Werenchuk and Ryan and Julia Robinson.

Nos sincères remerciements à Marcel Lavallée pour fournir la musique et Estelle Côté pour partager sa voix avec nous.

The flowers placed in the Church today are in loving memory of those who are no longer with us by the Yull family.

Following the service, there will be light refreshments provided through the efforts of volunteers who so kindly contributed to our table.

The Russeltown Church & Cemetery Trust Fund Committee held its annual meeting on Tuesday, July 8, 2014. As a non-profit we are able to provide tax receipts and sincerely appreciate any financial support received.

Donations may be sent to the:

Please feel free to take an extra copy of today's service bulletin to share with friends & family who were not able to attend today & encourage them to help us maintain this historic site.

Rev. Frank Gilmore

Rev. Frank Pettes Gilmore died June 12, 2014 and was buried in the Russeltown Church cemetery. Frank was born July 10, 1927 in Havelock and grew up on the Gilmore homestead on St.Charles Road.

1927

His parents, Etta Pettes and Herbert Gilmore baptized their children in this church and were among the last permanent members to worship here.

The Gilmore family continue to be active in supporting this church still to this day.

If you have family members who were part of the Church and would like to see their original records, please contact us.
